

PONY MAJORS TOURNAMENTS

2008 - American League

Champions: Big Rigs

In a game that featured stellar pitching, sparkling defense, and timely hitting, the Big Rigs defeated the Scarlet Cobras 3-0 to win the Pony Major American League Championship. The Big Rigs scored three times on five singles in the first which was all they needed as pitchers Lucas Hoye, Patrick Manning, and Alex Hejnaluque combined for their second consecutive perfect game, retiring all of the 18 batters they faced. Great job by the coaches, led by Jacob Hoye, Tom Manning, and Jonathan Kaye.

2008 - American League

Runners Up: The Scarlet Cobras

Although the Scarlet Cobras' young trio of pitchers of Jordan Hubal, Frank Adams and Connor Mraz did not allow another run, they could not break through despite putting the ball in play throughout the game. Sam Ginsberg's rocket into right field, which went to the wall, was foul by inches, and the Scarlet Cobras never threatened after that. The game featured several sparkling fielding plays by both teams and only one batter walked the entire game. Another great coaching job by Jeff Ginsberg, Chris Blum and Steve Rissman.

2008 - National League

Champions: RAM-Bombers

After winning their last 3 games on shutouts, the RAM-Bombers played a pitcher's battle with Doing a great job, Hector Colon stepped in the last minute to take over the coaching responsibilities of David Greenberg and his son Jacob. Pitchers Justin Colon, Ben Clarick, and Kofi and Rio Hope-Gund combined to throw a 1-0 shutout to take the National League title. The winning run was scored by the hit of Justin Colon.

2008 - National League

Runners up: The Atlantics

Pitchers Marek Barnette, Leo Posel and Sam Griffith, Leo Farber did a great job holding the RAM-Bombers to only one run. And many sparkling players were made in the field. Many thanks to the great coaching of Stuart Miller, Aaron Shiffman, and Brad Lander.