

IN THE NEWS

May, 2006: BULLDOG 9s MAKE IT TO THE FINALS IN A TOUGH NEW JERSEY TOURNAMENT

The 9u Brooklyn Bulldogs went 3-0 to reach the championship game at the 9th annual Washington Township Baseball Memorial Invitational tournament in New Jersey over the Memorial Day weekend.

The Dogs got things rolling against one of the best travel teams from Maryland, the Baltimore Blueclaws, scoring 9 runs in the bottom of the 6th for a come-from-behind 17-16 victory. Next, they defeated host Washington Township Red 10-5 and then reached the finals beating the tough Bear, Delaware, team 6-4. In the finals, the Dogs went down fighting 13-9 to the undefeated Piedmont Baseball team, also from Delaware.

The runner-up Bulldogs received numerous compliments from the tournament organizers and opposing teams for outstanding displays of sportsmanship and competitiveness.